November

6th November 2019
9:30am – 11:30am
Potteries Museum
and Art Gallery
ST1 3DW

Progression in going out – Children can be in your setting for up to 3 years and so it is important to think carefully about where you are going to take your children. During that time children will develop at different rates and be interested in a range of fascinations. Thinking about possible outings, building out from your setting as the children mature and develop is a useful process, whilst having opportunities to re-visit is extremely useful it is also important that outings are kept stimulating and well planned for.

New Session

Myth busting in connection to the Islamic faith – Part of Understanding the World is to consider similarities and differences and to have an opportunity to look at different faiths. Fahmida has agreed to give us an insight into what it is like to be a Muslim and to answer any of the questions you may have. There will also be an opportunity to go to the Mosque.
